

DOROTHY ZEAVIN, VIOLA

baker.

Dorothy received her Bachelor Degree from Cal State Northridge and UCLA. She has been a member of the Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra, YMF Debut Orchestra, Camerata of Los Angeles, Hong Kong Philharmonic, Colorado Music Festival, Oregon Bach Festival, and the San Luis Obispo Mozart Festival. Her Helmut Keller viola was made from a 250 year old Yugoslavian bedpost. Her sister, Marcia Bookstein plays cello for the San Diego Symphony. Dorothy is an inventive cook and an accomplished

Getting to know Dorothy Zeavin...

Q: What are your favorite travel destinations?

A: Depends on how much money I have. If I have thousands (ha!), I love Italy and Spain. If it's hundreds, I will go to the San Francisco area and Sonoma.

Q: What are some good books you've read lately?

A: The last 3 books that I've read that I love are David Sedaris' When you are Engulfed in Flames, Kathryn Steckett's The Help and Jhumpa Lahiri's Unaccustomed Earth.