San Diego Symphony Announces Bayside Summer Nights 2017 Lineup

Popular concert series to include Tony Bennett, Wynonna Judd, Leslie Odom Jr., Sergio Mendes, La La Land with live orchestra and more

San Diego, Calif. – The San Diego Symphony has announced an impressive lineup of artists for its 2017 Bayside Summer Nights including legendary crooner Tony Bennett; star of Hamilton and Tony Award-winner Leslie Odom Jr.; internationally acclaimed Brazilian artist Sergio Mendes; country songstress Wynonna Judd; Grammy Award-winning Beninese singer Angélique Kidjo; and films accompanied by live orchestra, Academy Award®-winning La La Land, Harry Potter & The Chamber of Secret™ and E.T. – The Extra Terrestrial. San Diego Symphony’s popular and highly successful summer series truly has something for everyone!

The San Diego Symphony’s long-running summer concert series located on the Embarcadero Marina Park South provides audiences with an unparalleled experience of live concert music in one of the most beautiful settings in America. Formerly known as Summer Pops, Bayside Summer Nights provides a variety of musical offerings – from popular tunes to light classical to movie entertainment fun for the entire family. This year, the San Diego Symphony has packed a wide array of concerts into the 10-week season. The series begins with the patriotic Star Spangled Pops on June 30, July 1 and 2, and concludes with a bang with the 1812 Tchaikovsky Spectacular on September 1, 2 and 3.

“Last year’s Bayside Summer Nights was our most successful summer season on record and proved we had a perfect combination of vibrant performances and engaged audiences; we look forward to 2017 being an equally incredible season,” said CEO Martha Gilmer. “Bringing some of the greatest artists of today to perform with our extraordinary Orchestra musicians makes this a unique musical festival here in San Diego. We are also especially excited to bring back two very important community concerts. On Sunday, July 16 we will be presenting our second annual “Community Day,” a day of music featuring our region’s very best musicians and culminating in a free performance by the San Diego Symphony. And on Thursday, August 31, the Symphony will perform our annual free concert for military families. This has always been a crowd-pleasing concert which not only brings military families together, but also allows us to express our thanks and admiration for their service.”

Enhancing the guest experience, concert-goers may bring in picnics to enjoy from the lawn seating or take advantage of the convenient tableside food service offered in the Champagne seating section by Behind The Scenes – a leading catering and events company with an impressive client list including the Olympic Games, ESPN X Games and the NFL Super Bowl. To compliment the great wine list currently offered, new this summer will be an expanded microbrewery offering in partnership with Stone Brewing Co.

Thursday Night Jazz

In its second year, the Symphony’s popular Jazz Series, Thursday Night Jazz, is back with a wide range of styles. This three-concert series begins on July 27 with New Orleans Jazz and a salute to the birthplace of American jazz and the many masters who forged it on Bourbon Street and beyond. On August 10, guests will be able to enjoy a party onstage with some of the country’s most talented Latin jazz musicians coming together to perform for one night only in Latin Jazz Masters. The series concludes on Thursday, August 24, when John Beasley presents MONK’estra, the killer contemporary big band that pays tribute to the music of Thelonious Monk. The series is once again curated by Gilbert Castellanos.

Movies by the Bay

The San Diego Symphony’s multi-year Harry Potter Film Concerts project continues as audiences relive the magic of the phenomenal Harry Potter & The Chamber of Secrets™ on Saturday, July 29 and Sunday, July 30 on giant screens while hearing the orchestra perform John Williams’ unforgettable score. On Friday, August 11, Steven Spielberg’s family classic E.T. – The Extra Terrestrial will be shown on the big screen while the orchestra performs the entire Academy Award-winning score live. Then, on Saturday, August 12, the winner of six Academy Awards® including Best Original Score and Best Original Song, La La Land will be screened with the orchestra and jazz musicians performing live.

New Sunday Classic and World Celebration Series

Supplementing the existing subscription series, a new three-concert series is being offered and is perfect for those who love hearing the classics or looking to have some fun sampling the sounds of the world. The Sunday Classic Series includes the Star Spangled Pops (July 2), Boléro By the Bay (August 20) – the ultimate classical pops experience of Beethoven’s famous Symphony No. 5 – and on the final Sunday of the season, the 1812 Tchaikovsky Spectacular (September 3). The Sunday World

“Harbor Lights” and (from the Urban Cowboy soundtrack) “Look What You’ve Done to Me.”

SERGIO MENDES – Sunday, August 6

In the 1960s bossa-nova master Sergio Mendes and his ace combo, Brasil '66, defined the Brazilian sound for decades with chart-topping hits such as “The Look of Love,” “The Fool on the Hill” and the unstoppable “Mas Que Nada.” Come see Mendes’ sexy, sophisticated artistry in his Bayside Summer Nights debut.

LATIN JAZZ MASTERS* – Thursday, August 10

Bongos, timbales, congas...and (more) cowbell! It will be a party onstage with some of our country’s most talented Latin jazz musicians coming together to perform for one night only. Featuring music of Celia Cruz, Tito Puente, Cal Tjader, Mongo Santamaria, La Lupe, Chano Pozo and more!

E.T. – THE EXTRA-TERRESTRIAL – Friday, August 11 (Special Concert)

An extraordinary LIVE orchestra performance and screening of Steven Spielberg’s family classic. Filled with unparalleled magic and imagination, this heartwarming masterpiece is one of the brightest stars in motion picture history. The San Diego Symphony Orchestra performs John Williams’ entire Academy Award®-winning score live while this beloved film is shown in HD on the big screen. E.T.™ & © Universal Studios

LA LA LAND – Saturday, August 12

Winner of 6 Academy Awards® including Best Original Score and Best Original Song, La La Land tells the story of Mia (Emma Stone), an aspiring actress, and Sebastian (Ryan Gosling), a dedicated jazz musician, who are struggling to make ends meet in a city known for crushing hopes and breaking hearts. Set in modern day Los Angeles, this original musical about everyday life explores the joy and pain of pursuing your dreams. The film will be shown on our big screen while the award-winning score is performed live by the San Diego Symphony and guest jazz artists.

ANGÉLIQUE KIDJO – Sunday, August 13

One of the most compelling voices on today’s world music scene belongs to Benin’s Angélique Kidjo. Called “Africa’s premier diva” by Time magazine, Ms. Kidjo has blazed a brilliant career path, winning multiple Grammys® and collaborating with Herbie Hancock, Dave Matthews, Peter Gabriel and Josh Groban. Combining the joyous traditions of Afro-Pop with her own distinctive interpretations of rock and soul classics, Angélique Kidjo is a powerful performer.

BROADWAY CONCERT – Friday, August 18 | Saturday, August 19

SAN DIEGO SYMPHONY

JAHJA LING, MUSIC DIRECTOR

Our annual salute to Broadway will focus in the second half on Fiddler On the Roof as interpreted by our Broadway veteran cast and the full orchestral palette of the San Diego Symphony.

BOLÉRO BY THE BAY – Sunday, August 20

The ultimate classical pops experience: Associate Conductor Sameer Patel leads an exciting performance of Maurice Ravel's famously seductive Boléro by the San Diego Symphony under the stars at beautiful Embarcadero Marina Park South. The concert will also feature music by Alberto Ginastera and Astor Piazzolla.

JOHN BEASLEY presents MONK'ESTRA* – Thursday, August 24

Our Thursday Night Jazz finale features the Grammy® nominated John Beasley's MONK'estra, a killer contemporary big band that pays loving centennial tribute to the music of Thelonious Monk while infusing it with contemporary harmonies, unstoppable grooves and a contagious sense of fun. Concert opens with a set from San Diego's own homegrown jazz piano genius, Joshua White.

GRACE POTTER – Friday, August 25

After years of fruitful collaborations with the likes of Kenny Chesney, The Flaming Lips and The Rolling Stones, singer-songwriter Grace Potter is coming into her own. Her distinctive voice and brilliant songwriting, perfected for years while leading her critically acclaimed band The Nocturnals, will make for a cool, classy evening with the San Diego Symphony at the Embarcadero.

THE COMMODORES* – Saturday, August 26

Born at Tuskegee Institute and signed by Motown in 1972, the Commodores are the '70s and '80s funk machine who've never stopped grooving. With breezy soul classics such as "Easy" and "Three Times a Lady" plus classic dance jams like "Lady (You Bring Me Up)" and "Brick House," you won't be staying in your seat for long!

OZOMATLI* – Sunday, August 27

One of the most popular "party bands" in the history of Bayside Summer Nights returns to the Embarcadero! The fabulous Ozomatli bring their urban-Latino-and-beyond collision of merengue and cumbia, hip hop and salsa, samba and jazz back to the Bayside for an evening of provocative music and irresistible beats.

FREE MILITARY SALUTE CONCERT – Thursday, August 31

The San Diego Symphony's annual summer concert has all seats reserved for military families.

1812 TCHAIKOVSKY SPECTACULAR – Friday, September 1 | Saturday, September 2 |
