San Diego Symphony Announces 2019 Bayside Summer Nights Lineup

Highlights of the summer concert series to include a Symphonic Celebration of the San Diego Padres 50th anniversary, Common, Chaka Kahn, Lyle Lovett and his Large Band, Harry Potter and The Half-Blood Prince™ In Concert, Star Wars: The Empire Strikes Back™ In Concert, two special Comic-Con week concerts and more

San Diego, Calif. – The San Diego Symphony has announced the lineup for its popular Bayside Summer Nights, packing the summer full of amazing screenings of the most classic films, some of the most beloved names in rock and a world premiere. At the heart of every Bayside Summer Nights season is the incredible San Diego Symphony Orchestra.

The 2019 season includes some very special concerts including a celebration of the San Diego Padres 50th anniversary with a musical tribute to America's favorite pastime; a symphonic night of hip hop featuring Common; two nights of Star Wars: The Empire Strikes Back™ In Concert with John Williams' unforgettable score performed live to the film; the Queen of Funk Chaka Khan; rock music's beloved The B-52s; J.K. Rowling's classic tale Harry Potter and The Half-Blood Prince™ In Concert; singer, composer and actor Lyle Lovett; and two special Comic-Con week concerts inside Copley Symphony Hall, Jacobs Music Center featuring the world premiere of Galaxy Quest™ In Concert and Back To The Future™© In Concert.

The San Diego Symphony's long-running summer concert series located on the Embarcadero Marina Park South provides audiences with a quintessential San Diego experience of live music paired with one of the most beautiful settings in America. Each summer the San Diego Symphony offers a great variety of concerts and experiences in the 10-week season. Holding with tradition, opening the series is the patriotic Star Spangled Pops on June 28 and 29, and the summer season concludes with a bang at the 1812 Tchaikovsky Spectacular on August 30 and 31 and September 1.

"Bayside Summer Nights is a ritual for many, and a new discovery for countless San Diegans who are learning what we all know - that it is a special combination of the San Diego Symphony Orchestra with some of today's top talents in the most beautiful location that is unique to San Diego," said San Diego Symphony CEO Martha Gilmer. "This summer's programming brings together artists across genres - with more classical programming, great films on the big screen, our annual tribute to Broadway, and fabulous guest artists. We cannot wait to welcome even more people to our Bayside Summer Nights where memories are made."

"It's also an extremely exciting time as we start bringing to life the details of our work on Bayside Performance Park. This new and improved Bayside Summer Nights experience will include a spectacular new park with a concert venue featuring a dramatic and iconic stage, state-of-the-art sound and lighting systems and high def LED screens. When Bayside Performance Park is complete it will instantly become one of California's most popular places to experience every kind of music," added Gilmer.

Some series highlights of the season include:

Thursday Night Jazz

Gilbert Castellanos returns for the fourth year as curator of the Symphony's popular Jazz Series, Thursday Night Jazz. The three-concert series offers a wide-range of styles and begins on July 25 with Congas and Bongos: Celebrating "Mongo" Santamaría and Jack "Mr. Bongo" Costanzo. The evening will be a fiery musical salute to Latin percussion pioneers Mongo Santamaría and Jack Costanzo featuring the many flavors of Latin Jazz/Afro-Cuban music. On August 8, we present A Nancy Wilson Tribute. Nancy Wilson was one of the leading songstresses of our era whose jazz, pop, R&B and soul crossing hits catapulted her to fame. Her death in 2018 was a great loss to popular song. The series concludes on August 22 with Miles Davis: Miles Ahead+19 In Concert, a follow-up to the sold-out success of Kind of Blue In Concert last Spring. This summer we'll showcase another Miles Davis masterpiece with the 19-piece KSDS Jazz Orchestra.

Movies by the Bay

The Harry Potter™ Film Concert Series continues with Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince™ In Concert on Saturday, July 13 and Sunday, July 14. The San Diego Symphony will perform the magical score live while the entire film plays in high-definition on a giant screen and guests can join in on Harry's adventures as never before.

On Thursday, August 1 and Friday August 2, one of the most popular science fiction films of all time, Star Wars: The Empire Strikes Back™ In Concert, will be shown on the big screen with John Williams' unforgettable score – from the brassy foreboding Imperial March to the noble "Yoda's Theme" – performed by the orchestra and conducted by Lawrence Loh.

Called the greatest musical ever filmed – Singin' in the Rain In Concert – dances its way to Bayside Summer Nights on Friday, August 23. Guests can experience the charm of Gene Kelly, Debbie Reynolds and Donald O'Connor on the big screen with the score played live by the San Diego Symphony Orchestra.

Get Your Geek On

On July 19 and 20 the San Diego Symphony encourages guest to get their geek on at our indoor home for two special Comic-Con week concerts. The cult-classic-sci-fi spoof Galaxy Quest™ In Concert arrives at Copley Symphony Hall, Jacobs Music Center on July 19 for its concert world premiere just in time for Comic-Con! Academy Award nominated composer David Newman conducts the San Diego Symphony performing the score he wrote.

On Saturday, July 20, power up the DeLorean and get ready to relive Back to the Future In Concert. Fans old and new will experience the thrill of this unforgettable movie classic on the big screen with the San Diego Symphony conducted by David Newman performing Alan Silvestri's musical score live.

About the San Diego Symphony

Founded in 1910, the San Diego Symphony is the oldest orchestra in California and one of the largest and most significant cultural organizations in San Diego. The Orchestra performs for over 250,000 people each season, offering a wide variety of programming at its two much loved venues, Copley Symphony Hall in downtown San Diego and the Embarcadero Marina Park South on San Diego Bay. In early 2018, the San Diego Symphony announced the appointment of Rafael Payare as music director designate. Payare will lead the orchestra's 82 full-time musicians, graduates of the finest and most celebrated music schools in the United States and abroad. The SDSO also serves as the orchestra for the San Diego Opera each season, as well as performing at several regional performing arts centers. For over 30 years, the San Diego Symphony has provided comprehensive music education and community engagement programs reaching more than 65,000 students annually and bringing innovative programming to San Diego's diverse neighborhoods and schools.
