Colorado Symphony Orchestra and Concert Hall have been awarded $125 million to transform Copley Symphony Hall, Jacobs Music Center overhaul will be finished by fall 2023

SYMPHONY CONDUCTING $125 MILLION RENOVATION

WASHINGTON—The White House on Sunday said it is taking steps against Russia and announced a round of sanctions targeting Russian banks and the country’s highest national security officials.

The Russian military announced it had started taking troops into two regions of eastern Ukraine and Putin, who has tied the situation to the so-called “Crimean question” and repeatedly accused Western countries of being involved, said he was acting in self-defense.

U.S. SOCCER, FEMALE PLAYERS SETTLE EQUAL PAY LAWSUIT

ATHENS—The Beatles’ hit “A Hard Day’s Night” was sung by a group of female soccer players in a protest outside the stadium where Spain’s women’s soccer team played Russia on Sunday.

The protest was organized by the Spanish women’s soccer federation to equalize pay between men’s and women’s teams.

The women played in front of the stadium in Madrid, where Spain’s women’s team was to play Russia in the final of the Euro 2022 women’s European Championship.

The protest took place after a meeting of the Spanish women’s soccer federation with the Spanish Football Federation earlier this month.

The federation has been pushing for equal pay between men’s and women’s teams for several years.
