San Diego Symphony Launches Patriotic “Star Spangled Pops” Complete with Fireworks on July 3-4-5 at Embarcadero Marina Park South

- TV’s “American Idol” and San Diego native Jessica Sanchez performs
- “Rocky” composer and Academy Award-winner Bill Conti conducts

One of San Diego’s most exciting musical summer traditions continues this week as the San Diego Symphony launches it Star Spangled Pops—a patriotic extravaganza with special guest TV’s American Idol and San Diego native Jessica Sanchez along with the San Diego Master Chorale led by Academy Award-winner Bill Conti conducting.

For three nights in a row, July 3-4-5, the Star Spangled Pops will celebrate Independence Day like no other. It will be a great, colorful and festive party on San Diego Bay. Located on picturesque Embarcadero Marina Park South behind the Convention Center, the Star Spangled Pops will feature God Bless the U.S.A., America the Beautiful, Battle Hymn of the Republic, a salute to the Armed Forces and a special rendition of Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy performed by Jessica Sanchez that also features San Diego Symphony’s principal trumpet player Micah Wilkinson.

Each evening, Friday, Saturday and Sunday—July 3, 4 and 5 is topped off with a spectacular display of fireworks over San Diego Bay. Concerts start at 7:30pm. Seating options include cabaret tables of four, grandstand and lawn. Prices range from $20-$92. It’ll be a special night on the town and a night to remember with family, friends and fellow patriotic Americans as the Star Spangled Pops celebrates the Fourth of July in grand San Diego style.

For more information and to purchase tickets, call the box office: 619.235.0804 or log onto www.sandiegosymphony.com

# #