San Diego Symphony’s Bayside Summer Nights Presents:

DreamWorks Animation In Concert—Celebrating 20 Years!

Over the past 20 years, DreamWorks Animation has introduced the world to a lovable curmudgeonly ogre, a noodle-slurping martial arts obsessed panda, and a bashful yet charismatic Viking hero and his pet dragon. Thanks to movies like Shrek, Kung-Fu Panda, Madagascar and How To Train Your Dragon to name a few, DreamWorks Animation is recognized as one of the most admired family entertainment brands in the world.

On Sunday, August 28 at 8pm, San Diego Symphony’s Bayside Summer Nights presents DreamWorks Animation In Concert—Celebrating 20 Years! It will be a night of movies, music and memories. Bayside Summer Nights celebrates the studio’s 20th anniversary in an evening of visually stunning film highlights of the most beloved animated movies in recent times. What’s more, the San Diego Symphony will create a welcomed sensory overload as the orchestra performs the movie score live on stage while the film highlights play on the big screen. Audience favorites and larger-than-life characters that have become so familiar and iconic come to life once again in this magical movie concert on the bay.

These DreamWorks films that became instant classics will charm audiences of all ages. This 20th anniversary celebration complete with the San Diego Symphony performing the score live on stage offers the chance to experience going to the movies in a delightful and thoroughly entertaining way. It’s family entertainment at its best. In addition, Bayside Summer Nights will feature an array of pre-concert activities for kids that will include games and crafts with themes of the evening’s concert.

DreamWorks Animation In Concert—Celebrating 20 Years will be a summertime party that will long be remembered.
